Appropriate Exercises In Crouse
Gymnasium Thursday.

Exercises appropriate to the memory of John R. Buchtel, the founder of Buchtel college, were held in Crouse gymnasium Thursday evening.

The program had been placed in the hands of the students and was carried out in the presence of an audience which filled the hall.

At the close of the program a hat, once worn by John R. Buchtel, was brought to the stage. By a miracle, the hat, a tall silk tile, escaped the fire. It had been taken to the home of "Aunt" Brown, and was to have been returned to the college within a few days, when the disastrous conflagration destroyed the college building. When the hat was removed from the hand-box, the students cheered lustily and the college yell was given with a vim.

After a prayer by President Ira A. Priest, the college orchestra, under the direction of W. R. Musson, made its first appearance. The orchestra is composed of Miss Adela Miller, Miss Edna Ricard, Bodo Miller, Herman Andree, Roland Arbogast, Mr. Christ and Miss Myrtle Hallock.

After a brief address by Dr. Priest, an octette of students sang several college songs. The remainder of the program follows: Address, J. A. Sharp, of the Freshman class; vocal solo, Miss Myrtle Hallock; address, Miss Edna Ricard, of the Sophomore class; poem, Mr. Thomas; reading, Miss Grace Kellam; address, Fred Huddleston, of the Junior class; reading, Death of D'Assas, Edson M. Robinson; addresses by Miss Grace Mitchell and Gerald H. Brown, of the Senior class. A pleasing feature of the program was the drill, consisting of the manual of arms, by the college cadets. Prof. C. C. Bates and Dr. C. F. Kolbe concluded the exercises with brief talks.

SIXTEEN

Large Kilns Will Soon be Completed.

Will Double Capacity of H. B. Camp
Company's Plant.

By April 1 the Greenstown plant of the H. B. Camp Co., will have doubled its capacity.

Sixteen 30-foot kilns are being put in, and, by the above date, will be in active operation. These additional kilns will be used in the manufacture of what is known as fire proofing.

Mr. H. B. Camp is at work upon a method, which, if it proves successful, will result in utilizing a large amount of what heretofore has been waste heat. After firing a kiln, the great heat creates large quantities of gas. It is Mr. Camp's purpose to confine this gas and conduct it into the dry house, where it can be used with profit.

Telephone Deal.

There Is Doubt as to Truth of Stories Sent Out.

An official of the Akron Peoples' Telephone company was in Cleveland Thursday.

He met Mr. Henry A. Everett and the alleged Detroit deal was discussed. Mr. Everett denied the truth of the dispatches sent out from that city. He said he had had no part in bringing the transfer about. As far as he knew, he said, the deal had not been made. He believed the independent lines would not be operated under the Bell management.

PLANT

Of McCausland Bros.

Will be Greatly Improved
by Spring.

Six Million Brick to be Made Annually.

New Machinery and Equipment to be Added.

Force of Workmen Will be Largely Increased.

The plant of McCausland Bros., brick manufacturers, is to be greatly increased by spring.

Heretofore, the annual output has been 3,000,000 brick, and a force of from 18 to 20 men has been employed.

It is now designed by the firm to fully equip the plant with new machinery and increase the force to 50 men.

Under the new conditions the annual output of brick will be 6,000,000. The firm is also negotiating with the C. A. & C. road to run a siding from its main tracks to the brick plant. This siding would be half a mile long.

CAR FAMINE.

Relief Is In Sight—Cars Being Sent West.

The car famine which has caused so much trouble in this section of the country, for six months past, is gradually breaking.

The Eastern roads are beginning to return cars, which have been held for many months. These were used in the grain and hay trade. The western roads could not obtain these until the rush was over down east.

BOTH SIDES

Of Pfeuger Case.

Husband and Wife Appeared as Witnesses.

Left Her Home Because of Cruelty.

The Claim Made by Mrs.
Pfeuger and Children.

Early Married Life Was Detailed—Court House News.

The attorneys for the plaintiff in the divorce case of Julia Pfeuger vs. Ernest F. Pfeuger, devoted considerable time Thursday afternoon, in introducing evidence, tending to show that the property now possessed by the defendant, was accumulated, in a large measure, by and through the assistance of Mrs. Pfeuger.

Mr. and Mrs. Pfeuger were married in Buffalo, 35 years ago. The plaintiff claims that during the early years of their married life, she was forced to do the most menial labor, peddling oranges and lemons from house to house. At that time they owned a number of hogs. It was alleged that Mrs. Pfeuger, on more than one occasion, had collected garbage to feed to the animals.

After the removal to this city Mr. Pfeuger was the owner of a grocery store. A son testified that his mother had often worked late into the night, picking over partially decayed fruit and vegetables, using those that were fit, in preserves and jellies or returning the same to the store for the trade. In late years after Mr. Pfeuger had grown wealthy, it was alleged that the plaintiff had been compelled to fire the furnace and, to a large extent, do her own house work. This evidence was introduced to substantiate the charges of gross neglect of duty.

There are 12 pages of type written matter in the petition, which are recorded the specific allegations of cruelty, neglect and infidelity. One incident testified to by a son, occurred a number of years ago. At that time the son, then a boy, was employed in the office of the Enterprise Manufacturing company. There was a dispute arose as to business matters. The father became angry. Handling his son a $10 bill he said:

"I never want to see you again. Take this and go."

The boy went into the house to tell his mother of the trouble. While he was doing so his father entered. Angered by the scene, he caught Mrs. Pfeuger by the throat, backed her into a corner and struck her on the nose with such force, that blood flowed. He said his father's treatment of Mrs. Pfeuger grew so abusive that she was forced to leave home, going to live with her children.

Friday morning the plaintiff and defendant were both on the witness stand. They gave their versions of the domestic troubles which led to the present proceedings.

In order to determine the amount of alimony, the court heard much evidence as to Mr. Pfeuger's wealth. E. A. Pfeuger testified that at the time he dissolved partnership with his father, the last named had asked $110,000 for his stock in the Enterprise Manufacturing company. The property of the defendant is variously estimated at from $125,000 to $150,000. There are eight children in the family. Two are minors. It was said Thursday that the defendant had offered to settle $800 a year on the two minor children, and give Mrs. Pfeuger the income on $10,000 worth of stock. This is the third divorce action commenced by the plaintiff. The petitions filed in 1880 and 1882, were dismissed before being brought to trial, a settlement having been arranged in both instances.

LIFE OF FEAR.

Amelia Tanner's life has been one of constant fear and trembling, according to her petition filed in Common Pleas court Thursday. She was married to Jacob Tanner almost 30 years ago, the ceremony taking place Oct. 13, 1870. She now asks the court to annul the marriage contract. Extreme cruelty forms the basis for her petition.

He has, she alleges, on numerous occasions threatened to end her existence with a revolver. This has so frightened her that she has been compelled to remain away from home for hours at a time. She claims he is possessed of real estate, which he

CHANGES PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

A bill introduced in the Senate at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 19.—Senator Breckin introduced a bill in the state senate changing the entire election machinery of the state in so far as it relates to primary elections.

One of the main features of the bill is that it defines what shall constitute a central or controlling committee in the matter of calling primary elections, the cause for conflict in authority between county executive and central committees heretofore in these matters, each denying the authority of the other.

Chicago Drainage Canal Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The supreme court of the United States took informal cognizance of the motion of the state of Missouri for leave to file a bill of complaint against the state of Illinois asking for an injunction against the Chicago drainage canal, to the extent of stating to Attorney General Crow, of the former state, that some announcement would be made Monday next.

This Trade Mark

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

As certain dealers are attempting to trade upon "QUEEN QUALITY" reputation by representing other shoes to be "Queen Quality" make, we hereby give notice that all "Queen Quality" shoes have the above trade mark stamped on the soles and on the top facing inside. These wonderfully perfect shoes for women have a phenomenal popularity and consequently it has become necessary to warn the public against imposition.

The price is not the only thing that has made "QUEEN QUALITY" shoes famous. There are other shoes at the same price, but not of the same quality.

The largest maker of women's fine shoes in the world has, in these shoes, won an unapproachable triumph in footwear. Beauty, comfort and splendid service are combined in them to a degree as surprising as it is gratifying.
